

Pithy Pars About People.

Miss Jones the Story Girl arrived in Bunbury last week, and in a most energetic way, immediately proceeded to advertise her entertainment to be held on Tuesday 26 October. Miss Jones comes with a great reputation and as she is throwing her whole hearted energies into the work of the War and Unemployment Distress Relief Fund in a most patriotic spirit she can be assured of a bumper house as a reward for her effort

In its Friday's issue the "S.W. News," Busselton, says.—

The many friends of Mrs H. S. Needham, who is now in Perth, will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from the severe attack of laryngitis from which she has been Alfred Knaption, and her cousin, Mrs H. H. Russell, between five and six years ago. During the whole of that time she has been one of the most popular young ladies of the town, and was always a willing helper in public functions where ladies' assistance was required. Nearly four years ago she married Mr Hector G. Aitken. Two infant daughters are left with the sorrowing husband to mourn her loss. Deceased was only 33 years of age. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and the very large attendance was a silent tribute to the respect in which deceased was held.

Information was received here on Thursday to the effect that Lieut. J. Vance, who was serving with the 1st Reinforcements, 10th Light Horse had been wounded.

Our Collie correspondent writes :-

Private Rudolph Mablit, who had been wounded twice at the Dardanelles has we regret to state succumbed to his last wounds. Rudolph as he was familiarly known dolph as he was familiarly known was most popular in Collie, and the timber districts in the vicinity, with the many men engaged of various nationalities, in the timber industry. He was of Russian birth and during his stay in Collie endeared himself to all sections of the community. A more genial spirit it was difficult to find, as he was loved by the children, admired by the gentler sex, and always respected by his own sex. Sincere regret is felt by all who knew him, as one of our most patriotic citizens,—a soldier and a man.

Mr Harry who has been absent in Perth for a few days returned to Collie, to make arrangements for a trip to Kalgoorlie, where he is about to take up his residence.

Our Bridgetown correspondent writes :—

Mr. F. W. Steere, who put up such a good fight for the Country Party a few months ago is being invited
