through Sweden, but there appears to be an objection to such an alternative. A further large sum that was recently voted for transmission is being held in Sydney for the present.

Private Jack Snellman, a Russian Finn, who left Maitland in August last with the Third Reinforcements of the 18th Battalion, has just returned, and has been welcomed home by his many friends. He spent ten weeks in the trenches at Gallipoli, where he received a severe shock from a shell, which killed three comrades beside him, and wounded him slightly. Private Snellman felt as though the top of his head had been taken off. He was admitted to hospital in Egypt about the middle of December, and had since been in six different hospitals, where he was well treated. He looks very well, but has not altogether recovered from his severe experience.

A Razor that Shaves.—There have been various brands of razors on the market for all time, but the first razor that has ever been guaranteed by the man who made it is the "Reliance." This razor has now been sold for over five years under guarantee (that if not to the buyer's liking after one month's trial, it will be exchanged, or cash refunded) with the most satisfactory results. J. Hart, of West Maitland, has the sole right for New South Wales, and if you send a postal note for 10s you will receive one per return post, with the guarantee. "Reliance" scissors, same guarantee, 3s, 3s 6d, 4s 6d.
