

WOUNDED.

PRIVATE NEWMAN.—Word has been received by Mr. H. Balley, of Howden-street, Carrington, that his friend, Private Emil Newman, had been wounded on the third occasion. Private Newman, who enlisted from Carrington, formerly resided at the Oriental Hotel.

PRIVATE FIELDER.—Mr. E. Fielder, of Young-street, Carrington, has received word that his youngest son, Private E. Fielder, has been wounded on the second occasion. Mr. Fielder's eldest son was killed in June last.

PRIVATE LARRITT.—Mrs. J. Larritt, of 32 Bolton-street, Newcastle, has been notified that her husband, Private James Larritt, has been wounded.

PRIVATE REGAN.—Mrs. G. Regan, of George-street, Holmesville, West Wallsend, has received word that her son, Private Dan Regan, was admitted to Queen Mary's Military Hospital, England, on October 14th, with fracture of right arm.

PRIVATE WYCKHAM.—Mrs. J. M. Anderson, of South-street, West Wallsend, has been notified that her brother, Private Alex. Wyckham, has been wounded.

PRIVATE SMITH.—Mr. and Mrs. L. Smith, of Ridge-street, Merewether, have been advised that their son, Private E. Arnold Smith, of "Newcastle's Own" Battalion, has been wounded.

LANCE-CORPORAL PENMAN.—Mrs. J. Penman, of Tyrrell-street, Wallsend, has been officially advised that her husband, Lance-corporal J. Penman, has been wounded on the second occasion. Lance-corporal Penman left for the front with "Newcastle's Own" Battalion.

PRIVATE PATRIOK.—Mr. W. Patrick, of St. James'-road, received word that his son, Private J. Patrick, had been wounded.

PRIVATE DEEPROSE.—Mr. S. Deeprise, of Cockle Creek, has received advice that his son, Private Dave Deeprise, has been wounded in France. Private Deeprise his son, Private Dave Deeprase, has been wounded in France. Private Deeprase left with the 34th Battalion in May, 1916.