

PERSONAL NEWS.

Mr. E. Naughton, secretary of the Fruit-growers and Market Gardeners' Association, and manager of the Gardeners' Supply Stores, has been an inmate of the North Adelaide Private Hospital for three weeks. He is progressing satisfactorily towards recovery.

Mr. Joseph Counsell, who recently died at the Home for Incurables at the age of 76, arrived in the State 72 years ago. He was foreman of the Port Adelaide gas works for 46 years. He was also a Forester and an Oddfellow for 54 years. He left six daughters—Mesdames C. Mueller (Adelaide), W. Hosking, J. Reynolds, J. McCann (Moonta), B. Scriven (Glenelg), and H. Revell (Queenstown). There are 32 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The Count C. E. Gyllensten, a native of Finland, who is a naturalised British subject, enlisted at Port Augusta on October 25 last year as a private in the Army Medical Corps. He has been for some months in camp at Mitcham or at Keswick, and he leaves for the front with the next draft of his unit. He is 38 years old, he sings very well, and he has made himself very popular with his comrades.
