

JAMBIN NEWS.

JAMBIN, 24-5-25.—At a social evening held at J. Hundtoft's residence, Jambin, on the 21st instant, Mr. P. Sterlesky was the guest of a number of Jambin residents. The Chairman (Mr. Cole) made eulogistic references to Mr. Sterlesky's good qualities as a working mate and acting ganger. In that position, said Mr. Cole, a certain amount of tact was required. Mr. Sterlesky had proved his ability as a ganger and as a mate he was one of the best. He was sorry that Mr. Sterlesky had private reasons for leaving Jambin, but he was taking away with him the best wishes of all present. In making Mr. Sterlesky a present of a handsome shaving outfit, Mr. Cole said it gave him pleasure to do so. He hoped Mr. Sterlesky would accept this gift as a token of their sincere regard for his future happiness.

Supporting remarks were made by Messrs Hundtoft, Campbell, Bond and Johnson.

Mr. Sterlesky, in responding, said for personal reasons he had obtained a transfer, but he would never forget the kindness of his Jambin friends and comrades. He thanked all those who had subscribed to the present function.

A dance followed, the music being supplied by Misses Hundtoft, Carter, and Mr. P. Bond.

A tennis match was played at Nettly on the 23rd instant between teams representing Nettly and Biloela. The Nettly player proved too good right through and won easily.

The weather is fairly warm and cloudy. Rain would be welcome.

Some fishermen in the North Sea recently hauled up in their nets a 12-cylinder aeroplane engine.
