

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

CHILDREN AND PICTURES.

School Teacher's Comments.

GRAFTON, Monday.

Addressing the Church of England Men's Society, at Grafton, A. W. Cuthbert, Principal of the local High School, said that children were being influenced by constant attendance at picture shows. It was up to the authorities to take the matter in hand if children were to be diligent and obedient at home.

FATAL MOTOR ACCIDENT.

A Baby Killed.

MELBOURNE, Monday.

The six-year-old baby of Norman Barnes was killed, and three other persons were injured, when a motor cycle and sidecar collided at Koo-yong. The baby's mother is in a critical condition.

BIG FOOTBALL SCORE.

444 Points.

MELBOURNE, Monday.

Playing against Royal Park, in the Band of Hope Union football match, Fitzroy Comrades scored 67 goals, 42 behinds (444 points), to Royal Park's four goals, two behinds (26 points).

FEDERAL FINANCE.

Comment by Treasurer.

is not regarded as serious. A later message states that the maniac poisoned himself.

A SOCIALIST'S FUNERAL.

Demonstration at Adelaide.

ADELAIDE, Monday.

At the funeral of Nicholas Evert, a Russian member of the Socialist Labour Party, and a returned soldier, who was gassed at the war, the coffin was draped in red. A Socialist orator delivered an address and many wreaths bore red streamers. The mourners sang "The Red Flag."

AN EMPIRE FLIGHT.

By British Flying Boats.

LONDON, Monday.

The "Daily Telegraph's" aviation expert says that only four Southampton flying boats will make the Empire flight. The other two are reserves, and will remain at Singapore. The tour includes the west coast of France, Italy, Malta, Bagdad, Karachi, Ceylon, Calcutta, Singapore, Port Darwin, and around Australia by the north-west, west south, and east coasts back to Port Darwin and Singapore. Official receptions and demonstrations will be given at the ports of call.