

POLICE COURTS.

(Tuesday.—Before Mr. A. B. Kidson, Acting P.M.)

Disorderliness.—Michael Ankudinow (25), labourer, and Margaret Ankudinow (28), were conjointly charged with fighting in Caledonian-avenue, Mavinga, on August 12. ~~Accused~~ each sentenced to one month's imprisonment with hard labour. On a further charge of wantonly damaging a window, the property of Janet Gilmour, at the same place, and on the same date, Margaret Ankudinow was fined £3, with 5/- costs and was ordered to pay £3—the extent of the damage.

Unlicensed Revolver.—A fine of £2, with 3/- costs, was imposed on James Alexander Baird (29), labourer, for possessing an unlicensed revolver. Constable Alexander said that at 5 p.m. on August 13 he was on duty in Albany-road, Victoria Park, and was told that a man with a revolver was threatening to shoot people. Accused had fired a shot at the back of his house. Witness found accused in a street and took the revolver, which contained three live cartridges and one spent one, from him. Accused had six cartridges in his pocket. Baird pleaded guilty to the charge, and said that the sole cause of the trouble was his mother-in-law who attempted to keep his wife away from him. The Magistrate ordered the revolver to be confiscated until a licence was granted.

Hawker Fined.—Edward Gordon was fined £1 for hawking goods on July 9 without a licence.

Drunkard Imprisoned.—A sentence of four months' imprisonment was imposed on George Evans (52), labourer, on the charge of being an habitual drunkard.

(Wednesday.—Before Mr. A. B. Kidson, Acting P.M.)

Wine Wrongly Labelled.—Arthur Ernest Fleming, the proprietor of Robert's Wine Saloon, who admitted a charge of having had on the counter of the saloon a cask of wine to which a fictitious description was applied, was fined £10. Liquor Inspector Tettersington said that he visited accused's saloon on August 8, and found three small casks of wine on the counter. The contents of two of the casks were true to label, but the third, which was labelled "Hardy's Aldinga Court," contained a local wine, made at Midland Junction.

Disorderly Behaviour.—James Morgan (45), labourer, was fined £5 for having used obscene language in James-street on August 14.

Refused to be Tried Summarily.—Robert Walter Daintrey (70), prospector, who was charged with having, at Sue's Find, on May 19, stolen a money order, valued at £6, the property of the Postmaster-General, and further, with having stolen, at Kalgoorlie, on May 21, the sum of £6, also the property of the Postmaster-General, stated his intention to plead not guilty, and elected to be tried before a judge and jury in the Criminal Court. A remand for eight days the Criminal Court. A remand for eight days was granted, on the application of Mr. N. P. Lappin, for the prosecution.
