

FIGHT HOGAN AND SCULLIN

Deportation Threat To Workers

So vicious is the attack of the Hogan "labor" government in Melbourne upon the working class that a number of workers are threatened with deportation to certain Fascist countries including Italy, where Mussolini's murder crew patrols every border and murders Communist deportees the moment they set foot on Italian soil.

The police basher gang has been diligently searching for a woman comrade, whom they describe as of Polish nationality. Everyone knows that instant death at the hands of Pilsudski's hangmen awaits her if she is sent to Poland. The police have not been able to find her and the Communist Party will see to it that they don't get her.

Deportation is under the jurisdiction of the Scullin Federal Government, but everyone who knows that the government of Scullin, Fenton, Beasley, Daly and company sent a group of Indonesians to their death through deportation to the Dutch hangmen, can appreciate with what glee these jackals will aid in the murder of Communists in Australia by sending them to Mussolini and Pilsudski.

This menace must be fought to the limit. Everywhere throughout Australia and the world mass protests rapper? Sub. Due!

tralia and the world mass protest must arise against this infamy. Many of these workers have for years been working in Australian industry and now at a time when they, with other workers, unite in the Unemployed Workers' Movement to resist starvation, they are victimised with the monstrous threat of deportation to Fascist hangmen.

Stop these deportation moves!

Build the Unemployed Workers' Movement!

Organise Workers' Defence Corps!

Down with the Labor governments of Scullin, Hogan, Lang and all the rest of the enemies of the working class and lackeys of capitalism!

MELBOURNE VICTIMS OF "RED" RAIDS BY LABOR GOVERNMENT

We have available a partial list of those comrades arrested in the vicious raids organised by the Hogan Labor government of Victoria against the Communist Party and the leaders of the Unemployed Workers' Movement in Melbourne. A number of the comrades arrested and held are threatened with deportation. The list is only partial because the police have made secret arrests and the names of many of their victims are not published. The following is a partial list:

William Smith, aged 26, laborer; Oscar Mattson, aged 42, laborer; Alexander Glowow, aged 24, laborer; Otto Stallamans, aged 24, laborer; Cormack McCarthy, aged 31, miner; Joe Santrich, aged 21, polisher; Mick Malot, aged 21, laborer; John Townsend, aged 22, laborer; George Martin, aged 20, laborer; William Watt, aged 25, laborer; Carl Jensen, aged 23,

25, laborer; Carl Jensen, aged 23, laborer; Nick Cetenich, aged 28, laborer; Charles Staden, aged 27, miner; Frederick Howe, aged 25, laborer; Alfred Watt, aged 24, carpenter, and secretary of the District Committee of the Communist Party; Daniel Lyttle, aged 29, laborer; James Aidie, aged 39, laborer; Andy Gerkins, aged 32, laborer; Edward Skiller, aged 23, seaman; Henry McNeill, aged 23, laborer; Cecil A Monson, aged 31, carpenter; William Daugherty, aged 25, laborer; Lily Smith, aged 36, home duties; Margaret Schrader, aged 33. These were arrested in the raids and charged with vagrancy, offensive behavior, assault and assorted crimes and misdemeanors. Whatever charge the police thought of first was placed against the victims of Hogan's Labor police.

At the Matteoti Club, which was raided on a number of occasions within 24 hours, Vincent Cotti, aged 33, laborer, was arrested and charged with having an unlicensed pistol in his possession. Stephen Bagley, aged 30, laborer, was also arrested and charged with offensive behavior and vagrancy.

At the Yarra Bank meeting on Sunday a number of those out on bail were arrested again, as well as some additional ones. These were: A. Watt, C. Monson, Geore Martin, Thomas W. Le Huray, Paul Hoyne, H. W. Cronk, Oscar Mattson, James Smith, Gus Marusich, Adolph Gredl. All were Marusich, Adolph Gredl. All were charged with having "behaved in a threatening manner, whereby a breach of the peace is likely to be occasioned." Hogan's police arrested them not for anything they did, but for something they might do, according to the charge.

The International Class War Prisoners' Aid is handling all the cases resulting from Hogan's Red Raids.

WOMEN AGAIN TO THE FRONT IN MELBOURNE

One of the new features of the recent bitter class fights, characterised by sharp clashes with the police, is the part women have played. In Melbourne in the street fighting, as a result of attempts to smash the demonstrations of the Unemployed Workers' Movement, women were prominently to the fore, and even to-day the police are in a veritable frenzy searching for a leading woman comrade whom they say they hope to deport. (But the Communist Party has decided otherwise and will not permit her arrest on the framed-up charges that Hogan hopes to use as the basis for her deportation to Pilsudski, the Polish Fascist hangman.)

The women of Melbourne, like the women of Adelaide, have shown that they can be depended upon not merely to fight beside the men, but in many instances they take the lead in the fighting against police attacks.

In the ranks of the neighborhood Vigilance Committees, organised by the Unemployed Workers' Movement, the women have frequently prevented police evictions of families who could police evictions of families who could not pay rent and have prevented furniture seizures.

Not the least effective weapon in mobilising the working women in the sharpening class struggles is the publication and wide distribution of the "Working Woman," by the Women's Department of the Communist Party of Australia.

