

AXE, KNIVES, BED POST

Exhibits in Police Court

Bodily Harm Charge

An axe, a tomahawk handle, three table knives, a carving knife and a bed post were tendered as exhibits in the Police Court to-day when evidence was commenced in the case in which George Bray, 30, labourer, and Vera Moore, 30, are charged that on April 28, at Brisbane, they unlawfully did grievous bodily harm to John Grzybala.

Detective Senior Sergeant T. Brannelly prosecuted and Mr. J. Gilbert appeared for the defendants.

Plainclothes Constable J. T. Doherty said that on Sunday, April 28, at 11.28 p.m. he was on duty at the C.I. Branch, and as the result of information received he went by car to Bunya Flats, St. Paul's Terrace and Kennigo Street, Valley. There he saw the complainant bleeding from a wound in the head. His condition was serious. Witness was told something by Constable Williams.

Later at the city ambulance centre

Later at the city ambulance centre witness had a conversation with the two defendants, who were then taken to the Brisbane Hospital. Witness, at the hospital was handed an axe, a tomahawk handle, and three table knives.

These were tendered in court as exhibits.

CARVING KNIFE.

Witness added that the defendants accompanied him to the C.I. Branch, where Constable Williams gave witness a tomahawk and a carving knife. He also took possession of clothing which the defendant Bray was wearing.

At 5 a.m. on April 29, witness went to Bunya Flats, where he found a tomahawk head and a bed post on the ground beside the bed. He returned to the detective office and took possession of clothing which the defendant Moore was wearing.

At a later stage both defendants were charged at the watchhouse.

The Court adjourned to the Brisbane Hospital.
