

A Leg Injury.

When Ernest Brutton, who resides in Sheridan-street and is employed on the wharf, became jammed in a ship's hold yesterday, he received a lacerated and contused wound to the right thigh and contusions to the back of his leg. The Ambulance gave first-aid and took him to his residence.
