

FATHER AND SON IN SAIL BOAT

CAIRNS-BRISBANE TRIP.

IPSWICH, Dec. 3.—On the water since October 30, in a sailing boat that they brought in Cairns, Mr. J. A. Pankoff and his son, Stuart, phoned Mrs. Pankoff, East Ipswich, the news that they expect to arrive in Brisbane before the end of the week. The call was made from the Maryborough district.

Mr. Pankoff has telegraphed his wife at every port of call during the trip. "I have not worried at all," Mrs. Pankoff said to-day. "My husband was a sailor and my son was always very keen about the water. It has been a long-cherished dream for them to sail like this."

Mr. Pankoff and Stuart had been employed in the Cairns district since the beginning of the year and decided to return home in this unorthodox fashion.
