
Mysterious Disappearance.

A lad named George Czarlinski, 13, left his parents' home, 134 Underwood-street, Paddington, on a message, last evening (Monday), and has not since been heard of. He was dressed in grey knickerbocker pants, brown and yellow coat, square pattern, blue sailor cap, shoes, and dark stockings, white and pink collar. The lad has light brown hair, blue eyes, clear complexion, and he is very tall and thin for his age. He speaks good English with a slight foreign accent, and can also speak Polish (his native tongue), French, and other European languages. He had under his arm at the time he left his home a pair of boots wrapped up in a newspaper parcel.
