

A GIRL'S DISAPPEARANCE. WHERE MISS KRAUSMANN HAS GONE.

Senior-constable M'Atamoney was engaged all yesterday afternoon making inquiries regarding the girl Myrtle Krausmann, 16, who mysteriously disappeared from her home, 98 Simmons-street, Newtown, on Monday.

From what the Senior-constable has learned, he is confident that the girl has not been the victim of foul play. Miss Krausmann is said to have told a friend that she intended going away, and the senior-constable feels pretty certain that she is on her way to Brisbane by steamer. The telegram which the girl's mother received, requesting her to come at once to a certain place in the city, was sent with the object of getting Mrs. Krausmann out of the way until the young lady returned to the house, packed her clothes in a trunk, and got them away.

A sawmill at Bega, owned by Mr. G. Hines, who resides in Sydney, has been totally destroyed by fire.
