

MUNITIONS

"THE DAILY NEWS" LIST.

Of Expert Volunteers.

HANDED TO STATE COMMITTEE.

We received the following letter to-day:—

Mr. A. Lovekin, "Daily News" Office.
Dear Sir,—I understand from the bearer, Mr. H. Shepherd, that he is the Chairman of the Volunteer Munition Workers of Western Australia, and that "The Daily News" has a list of the members of that league. If you can let him have a copy of that list the Labor sub-committee of the State committee can send each of the men an application form, and tabulate their qualifications for future use. I understand from last night's issue that you contemplate handing the matter over to us. I am, yours, faithfully,

EDWARD SHANN,
Sec. Labor Sub-Committee.

Lotus-street, Leederville, fitter.

WILLIAM DIXON SPOORS, Victoria House, Hay-street, Perth, engineer, formerly with Armstrong Whitworth, Elswick; six years with Martin and Co., Gawler, South Australia; engineer Queen Margaret mine, Bulong; five years at Great Boulder mine.

F. W. BEAN, Gasworks, Albany, plumber and pipe fitter.

W. E. CLARKE, Margaret-street, Victoria Park, formerly of the Severn division of Submarine Engineers, with good discharge as a lance-corporal, experienced in loading and unloading gun cotton mines.

EDWARD HELLMAN (a Russian), Greenbushes, Ironturner, with Russian and London experience. Barred from enlisting by an injured eye.

THOMAS SADLER, Labor Bureau, Perth, boiler-maker, worked at Armstrong's Elswick works, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

HENRY GREIG, c/o Mr. Scott, John-street, Cottesloe, five years as engineer fitter with Hall, Russell and Co., Ltd., shipbuilders and engineers, Aberdeen, Scotland; nine months as head mechanic with J. A. Thomson and Co., Ltd., 663 Hay-street, Perth; six months as pipe fitter on Geldenhuis Deep Gold Mines, Johannesburg, Transvaal, South Africa.

H. T. STEPHENS, Labor Bureau, Perth, was many years at Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, carting and filling.

JAMES HIGHAM, Labor Bureau, Perth, experienced in working with