Mrs Krauth, of the Elite Supply Company, is leaving by the Katoomba on Saturday for the Eastern States, where she will remain some months.

Mr George Houston, who for the past five years has occupied the position of accountant at Messrs E. Lee Steere and Co's offices, recently resigned his position to start in business as public accountant, and customs and general agent. Mr Houston's well known ability, coupled with his personal popularity, should ensure for him an extensive clientele. He has already been appointed secretary of the Globe Brewery Ltd, Geraldton, and for the next few weeks will devote himself to the company's affairs. He proposes opening an office in a central position shortly, and will advertise his agencies and address in due course.

Major Margolin (now acting Lieut Colonel) who was formerly well known on the Murchison, writing

KNOWN on the Murchison, writing to Mr L. Goldberg says: "No doubt by now you know from the newspapers the performance we have done by getting away from under the enemy's nose (within a few yards) without losing a single man. I had the honour to be one of the last to leave the trenches, leaving one officer and ten men behind, who followed within ten minutes."
