

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

WHAT POLICE INQUIRIES PROVED.

George Ferber, 21, a Russian, was arrested by the police on two charges of stealing in dwelling-houses in Greenwich-road, Greenwich, money, clothing, and jewellery valued at £14, and with stealing at Sydney wearing apparel, valued at £10. Ferber was identified by five persons, but inquiries by the police proved that at the time the offences were committed Ferber was at Coff's Harbor.

When Ferber appeared at the North Sydney Police Court before Mr. Wilkinson, the charges against him were withdrawn by Inspector Fullerton, and the accused was discharged.
