

MARRIED MAN'S PATRIOTISM.

Eligible single men could well take a leaf from the book of Mr. Isaac Lazarus, marine dealer, a married man, residing in Joseph-street, Bendigo, who enlisted for active service at the Bendigo recruiting depot yesterday. Mr. Lazarus, who is 44 years of age, and has three sons, all of whom have served or are serving their country—one having been discharged after having been wounded in Gallipoli, one being on active service in France, and the third in camp at Royal Park—says that what is good enough for his sons is good enough for him.
