

"GOOD ENOUGH FOR ME."

The only recruit accepted at the Bendigo Recruiting depot yesterday was a man named Isaac Lazarus, dealer, of Joseph Street, Bendigo. The new recruit has already given three sons to the service of Empire. One has been seriously wounded, another is now in the trenches in France, while the third is in camp at Royal Park. Mr. Lazarus, senr., is 44 years and three months old, and when accepted yesterday he remarked that he was glad to have the opportunity to do something for his country. "I have three sons there," he said, without the spirit of bravado, "and what is good enough for my boys is surely good enough for me." The gallant recruit was warmly congratulated by the enlisting officers.
