

THE LATE PRIVATE LYUNG.

Mr. and Mrs. Glazbrook, Birkenhead, have been notified that their friend, Private (Dick) Lyung, of the 10th Battalion, was killed in action on April 2. Private Lyung left here on February, 1915, for Egypt. He was at the Gallipoli landing, and later was sent to France, where he remained till his death. He was 24 years of age, and had the respect of all who knew him.
