

MILANG.

October 8.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Milang Congregational Church on Thursday, 4th October, when Miss Irene White, daughter of Mr E. C. White, was united to Mr. J. V. Michelson, of the Australian Light Horse. The officiating minister was the Rev. G. A. Cooper, and the wedding was of a military character, the bride and bridegroom passing under the colors. The church had been prettily decorated by the friends of the bride. Miss M. Kruse presided at the organ and played the Wedding March. Bridesmaids were Misses F. and E. White ; groomsmen, Ptes. E. Little, and V. White. The bride's dress was of white silk, and the bridesmaids', pink mersilka. The bridegrooms' gifts to the bridesmaids were gold battalion rings. After the ceremony an adjournment was made to the Institute for the breakfast where the usual toasts were honoured. The happy couple left by motor in the afternoon.
