

MILITARY NOTES.

Mr. Henry A. Tardent, of Wynnum, has just learned that one of his sons at the front, Corporal Emil A. Tardent, has been awarded the M.M. for "bravery in action," more especially during the battles of 8th and 12th August. He was on this last occasion wounded in the hip by a machine gun bullet during a rather severe bayonet charge in the innermost defences of the enemy.
