
KILLED IN ACTION.

Word is to hand that Bugler Max Kotton has been killed in action in France. The casualty list just states "M. Kotton (Russia) killed," and there can hardly be any doubt that it is M. Kotton, who enlisted locally. The late Bugler Kotton was very well known locally, and was a native of Warsaw (Russia). While in Milnthorpe he was employed at the Commercial Hotel, and for the firm of Messrs A. Salter. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He tried several times to enlist, but was turned down each time on account of being too small, but was finally accepted as a bugler. Great regret is expressed locally at the news of his death.
