

WORRIED TO DEATH.

A RUSSIAN'S SUICIDE.

Sydney, April 18.

Peter Charving (26), a Russian, who enlisted in the A.I.F., hanged himself on board the transport Anchises at the quarantine station. It is stated that Charvin had been worried because some of his comrades had christened him "Bolshev'y."