

QUARTER SESSIONS.

(Before Judge Scholes.)

Mr. T. S. Crawford, Crown Prosecutor.

George James Lelle Johnson, for whom Mr. Parker appeared, pleaded not guilty to the charge of obtaining £28 from Oscar Frederick Strom by false pretences. It was alleged that the accused induced Strom to put money into an open-air picture show business. The two men are returned soldiers. Accused was found not guilty, and discharged.

Daniel Crawford pleaded guilty to stealing a suit case, containing clothing and £60, the property of Arthur Basil Rees, at Randwick, on April 20. He was remanded for sentence.

---