

WELCOME HOME

A welcome home was tendered to Messrs. S. L. Gordon and B. Gould, who have returned from the war, at the synagogue rooms on Sunday afternoon last.

Dr. G. M. Hains presided, and extended to the guests a hearty welcome, his remarks being warmly supported by Messrs. P. Griff, G. Krantz, L. Gordon, A. Price, and L. Dryen.

On behalf of those present the chairman presented to Messrs. S. L. Gordon and B. Gould a gold watch suitably inscribed, which gifts were thankfully acknowledged by the two returned soldiers, and also by Messrs. Gordon and Gould, seniors. During the evening it was announced that notwithstanding the small community of Jews in Broken Hill seven of them enlisted and one was rejected. The names were as follows:—S. L. Gordon, B. Gould, A. Krantz, E. Lakovsky, Luck, Victorson, the seventh unrecorded, and L. Dryen rejected.

---

Why not buy all you want in Broken Hill, so that you can look your business friends in the face without feeling uncomfortable?