

•FED UP WITH LIFE.

CORONER'S INQUEST ON A RUSSIAN.

SYDNEY, Wednesday. -- An inquest concerning the death of Matrofan Koropets, a Russian, who was found dead in the Domain, opened to-day. Herbert Everitt deposed that deceased was addicted to drink and always saying, "I won't work for capitalists any longer." He was low-spirited and in ill-health, and declared he was on his last lap. When witness joked with him about marrying a certain girl he replied, "I'm no good to her. I'm fed up with life altogether. I'm not fit to live."