

Stripped of its fal lals, soldier guards above and beside, military trimmings and trappings, the above. is the King's Certificate carried by Mr. Ivan Dojger, who has been adjudged an alien by the Hughes Government after over two years' active service abroad. Mr. Dojger is nearly blind, and gets a wholt guinea a week as pension. As we mentioned last week, his two sisters and two brothers were killed in one day among the Canadian losses. Mr. Dojger apparently fought well, and carries no "crime" marks on his war record, being lucky enough on that head, if not on others. No doubt the R.S.L. will continue its policy of silence, where such policy conflicts with the view of its mandarins, Hughes-Pearce.
