

Col. L.E. Margolin D.S.O.

Colonel L. E. Margolin, D.S.O., returned to this State on Thursday, and says he is going to settle down here, most likely near Collie, and lead the simple life. Seeing that this very gallant officer, soldier, linguist, scholar and administrator is now back, and there is to be an election for the Legislative Council in the South-West Province, why not all parties unite and return him unopposed to the Upper House? Seeing he is now back in Australia, it would be a very gallant act if "Pompey" Elliott would trip over here, at his bleeding country's expense, and repeat all he had to say whilst Colonel Margolin was in the Holy Land. There are a number of returned soldiers who would see fair play, but it's odds on that "Pompey" has not got the stuff in him to do it. It's a different matter fighting a man under Parliamentary privilege when he is 10,000 miles away to when he is at close quarters.
