
Innisfail Vagrant Sentenced.

On the 25th July, 1922, Arthur Kodak appeared before the Innisfail Police Court on a charge of vagrancy, and pleaded not guilty. Sub-Inspector McNamara, prosecuted. Evidence was given for the prosecution by Constable Martin, Sinnamon and Kelly, and the offender gave evidence on his own behalf. He was convicted and sentenced to one month's imprisonment in the Cairns gaol.
