

QUARTER SESSIONS.

(Before Judge Cohen.)

Mr. C. E. Welgall, Crown Prosecutor.

BIGAMY.

Arthur Henry Hayes pleaded guilty to having married Muriel Louisa Stewart at Corowa on March 24, 1909, and, while she was still alive, to having also married Mabel Louisa Tillman, at Annandale, on September 29, 1920. Mr. S. Betts appeared for the accused, who was bound over in recognisance, self and one surety of £25 each, to appear for sentence at the Court of Quarter Sessions, Sydney, in February, 1923.

THEFT OF MOTOR CAR.

Henry Leslie Rydquist pleaded guilty to stealing a motor car, the property of William John Curtis, at Sydney, on July 3. Mr. J. C. J. Ryan appeared for the accused, who was bound over in recognisance, self and one surety in £20 each, to appear for sentence if called within twelve months.

INTENT TO STEAL.

Albert Henry Witton pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering the dwelling of Frederick Chudleigh, at Burwood, on July 26, with intent to steal. Mr. W. D. McMahon appeared for the accused, who was remanded for sentence.

ACQUITTED.

David Borszcer pleaded not guilty to a charge of stealing at Bellevue Hill, on May 1, a harp, the property of Stella May Kratzling. Mr. J. Hickey appeared for the accused, who was acquitted and discharged.

(Before Judge White.)

Mr. L. J. McKean, Crown Prosecutor.

ACQUITTED.

Edward Ernest Nieass and Andrew McCarthy each pleaded not guilty to a charge of assaulting John Baker, and robbing him of money to the amount of £1. Mr. J. W. Abigail appeared for the two accused, who were money to the amount of $1. 200. 00. 100.

gail appeared for the two accused, who were acquitted and discharged.
