

A DIGGER'S FUNERAL.

On Saturday the remains of the returned soldier, Uno Videkind Sandberg, who died in tragic circumstances at the Grafton Hospital on Friday, were buried. When it became known to local members of the Returned Soldiers' League that the deceased was in distressed financial circumstances and that his funeral would be a matter for the State they undertook the responsibilities in connection with the burial arrangements and as many of the returned men as possible attended the obsequies.

---