Peter Robinsky, lift attendant, aged 29 years, employed at Elizabeth House, Elizabeth street, was admitted to the Melbourne Hospital on Saturday afternoon, suffering from injuries to both feet. Robinsky was cleaning the lift, and in the course of his work it was necessary to move it up and down. As the lift was passing one of the floors his feet were caught between the doorway of the lift and the floor above. On examination at the hospital it was found that bones in both feet had been crushed.
