

CATTLE POISONED.

Mr. Julian Orlov, of Bilambil, suffered a severe loss last week, when five or six head of cattle, which were suddenly stricken with a mysterious illness, died. The cattle, which were in good condition, comprised heifers ranging from 9 to 15 months, and it is thought that the deaths were due to weed poisoning.