

TOLGA SOCIAL.

TOLGA, December 10.

Mr. H. Hannus arrived from the South last week. He has been very ill, an inmate of a Brisbane hospital, and is now spending a holiday with his wife's mother, Mrs. Franklin, of Tolga, before proceeding to Innisfail. He is accompanied by his wife.

FISHING PARTY.

A party of fisherman—and quite a number of young ladies with the same intent—went out from Tolga at the week-end, and spent an enjoyable time on the Barron River about 5 miles below Tolga. They had quite a good haul of fish, too.

ACCIDENT.

While playing with a calf at Tolga, young Ernest Morris, aged 13, was thrown and severely hurt his right knee. The Atherton ambulance took him to the Atherton Hospital where he was put under an anaesthetic, and several stitches were inserted.

BAND DANCE AT KAIRI.

The dance held for the purpose of collecting funds for the Atherton Model Band on Saturday night was quite successful and all had a most enjoyable time. Mr. Forsayth acted as M.C., and the various competitions caused a great deal of fun. The Godfrey's Kairi Orchestra supplied excellent music, and the ladies served dainty refreshments. Financially it was very successful.
