

MAN FOUND SHOT DEAD

HARVEY. Monday.

Alexander Spishah (54), married, a native of Russia, was found dead at his home at Mornington yesterday afternoon with a wound from a rifle in the left breast.

Spishah had been unemployed for some considerable time and was greatly depressed. His wife left the house shortly before 5.30 p.m., and when she returned a few minutes later, she found her husband apparently dead on the floor of the bedroom. The rifle was alongside the body.

An inquest will be held. Spishah was well known throughout the district.
