

Drunk in Ellen Street On Consecutive Days

John Limbek, of Pirie, was fined by Mr. A. H. L. Goode in the police court yesterday on two charges of drunkenness.

Sgt. W. V. Virgo said that defendant had been due to appear in court on Saturday morning, but was again arrested that morning.

For having been found drunk in Ellen street on November 3 defendant was ordered to pay 10/, with 2/6 costs, in default 72 hours' imprisonment. On a similar charge in respect of November 4 he was fined £1, with 8/6 costs, in default seven days' imprisonment.