

Bolting Horse Collides With Car.

When returning from Adelaide last week, Mr. Tom Kallio had a narrow escape from a serious accident. He had just reached the awkward intersection at Gepps Cross when a loose horse galloped into his car. The animal struck the near-side back mudguard crumpling it badly. Mr. Kallio had been to the city for his wife who has been seriously ill for some time. Naturally Mrs. Kallio as well as the other occupants received a severe shock. The horse sustained a broken leg and had, we believe, to be destroyed.
