

Pinned Under Cane Truck

On Friday last Matti Harsila (70, single), residing with Mr. Frantzi, Maroochy River, suffered a compound fracture of his left leg in three places, a large lacerated scalp wound and various abrasions and shock, when a cane truck on which he was riding overturned and pinned him down for half an hour. He was conveyed across the river by rowing boat to reach the waiting Maroochy Ambulance which transported him to Nambour Hospital.
