

£840 Fur Haul in City Shop

It a daring robbery on Saturday night, thieves stole 76 fur capes, valued at £840, from the premises of Mr. Israel Heselev, furrier.

Police believe the thieves used a car to take away the furs.

Mr. Heselev's premises are on the third floor of 62 Swanston-street.

The thieves broke through two doors to reach Mr. Heselev's showroom.

The main door on to the street was opened, and the door into Mr. Heselev's premises was taken off its hinges.
